Syllabus for
SWK 404—Social Work Practice IV
2 Credit hours
Fall 2014

I. COURSE DESCRIPTION

This is the fourth practice course in the generalist social work sequence that builds upon the other practice courses SWK 331, SWK 332, and SWK 333. The focus is on taking the problem-solving model in a systems framework and applying it to working on the macro or community level of social work practice. Special emphasis is given to the roles of broker, advocate, and planner for service provision for various client systems. Students engage in a community project during the duration of the semester.
Prerequisites: SWK 331; SWK 332; SWK 333.

II. COURSE GOAL

Practice IV's goal is to take the generalist social work framework and make application to client systems on the macro level. Students practice skills in data gathering, assessment, and intervention planning on the macro level.

III. STUDENT LEARNING OUTCOMES FOR THIS COURSE

V. POLICIES AND PROCEDURES

A. University Policies and Procedures
1. Attendance at each class or laboratory is mandatory at Oral Roberts University. Excessive absences can reduce a student’s grade or deny credit for the course.
2. Students taking a late exam because of an unauthorized absence are charged a late exam fee.
3. Students and faculty at Oral Roberts University must adhere to all laws addressing the ethical use of others’ materials, whether it is in the form of print, electronic, video, multimedia, or computer software. Plagiarism and other forms of cheating involve both lying and stealing and are violations of ORU’s Honor Code: “I will not cheat or plagiarize; I will do my own academic work and will not inappropriately collaborate with other students on assignments.” Plagiarism is usually defined as copying someone else’s ideas, words, or sentence structure and submitting them as one’s own. Other forms of academic dishonesty include (but are not limited to) the following:
a. Submitting another’s work as one’s own or colluding with someone else and submitting that work as though it were his or hers;
b. Failing to meet group assignment or project requirements while claiming to have done so;
c. Failing to cite sources used in a paper;
d. Creating results for experiments, observations, interviews, or projects that were not done;
e. Receiving or giving unauthorized help on assignments

By submitting an assignment in any form, the student gives permission for the assignment to be checked for plagiarism, either by submitting the work for electronic verification or by other means. Penalties for any of the above infractions may result in disciplinary action including failing the assignment or failing the course or expulsion from the University, as determined by department and University guidelines.

4. Final exams cannot be given before their scheduled times. Students need to check the final exam schedule before planning return flights or other events at the end of the semester.

5. Students are to be in compliance with University, school, and departmental policies regarding Whole Person Assessment requirements. Students should consult the WPA handbooks for requirements regarding general education and the students’ majors.
   a. The penalty for not submitting electronically or for incorrectly submitting an eportfolio artifact is a zero for that assignment.
   b. By submitting an assignment, the student gives permission for the assignment to be assessed electronically.

B. Course Policies and Procedures

1. Evaluation Procedures
   a. The student’s evaluation is based on the following:
      2 Community Development project reflections (2 x 100) 200 (one to eport)
      Reflection papers from website readings (3 x 50) 150
      Midterm Exam 100
      Final Exam 100 (submit to eport)
      Attendance at 2 community meetings (2 x 25) 50
      Reflection papers on 3 Saturday meetings (3 x 50) 150
      Total 750
   b. The following grade scale applies
      A  675 - 750
      B  600 - 674
      C  525 - 599
      D  450 - 524
      F  0 - 449
   c. Papers are due on their respective due dates. Late papers are assessed five points per day penalty.

2. Whole Person Assessment Requirements
   a. The student must submit one Community Meeting/Project reflection paper and Final Examination as artifacts for the ePortfolio requirement for the class.
   b. Artifacts not submitted electronically or incorrectly submitted receive a zero for that assignment.

3. Other Policies and Procedures
a. Course Structure—This course meets primarily off-campus on Saturday mornings.
b. Community meetings/projects—students will attend meetings with community
c. Meeting attendance—students will attend 5 meetings/projects in the community and write reflection papers pertaining to each.
d. All missed exams must be made up by the end of the week following the originally scheduled exam.
e. Excused Misses—No fees or points are deducted for legitimate excuses from Administration, Physician, Nurse, or Professional Counselor.
f. Unexcused Misses—The makeup exam must be processed on the appropriate form with payment of late fee prior to taking the exam.
g. Pop Quizzes—No pop quizzes are given; however, students are expected to have read assigned material before the class for which they are due.
h. Cheating/Plagiarism—Students suspected of cheating receive no points for that exam or quiz with no opportunity for a makeup. Additionally, they face possible disciplinary action by the University. Any student suspected of plagiarism receive no points for that written assignment with no opportunity for a makeup. Additionally, he or she face possible disciplinary action by the University. All appeals to the contrary must be typed and copies submitted to the chairperson of the department and to the instructor.
i. Changes—Class attendance is considered an essential component of the course requirements. Therefore, any changes in syllabi, assignments, exams, or other requirements announced in class by the instructor are considered to constitute adequate and sufficient notice. It is the student's responsibility to be aware of any such changes and to contact the instructor if he or she is unsure of what is expected.
j. Office Hours—Office hours are announced in class. If the student cannot make the hours, see the instructor after class or leave a message on voice mail with contact times. An appointment can be arranged.
k. Students are expected to attend classes and to participate in class activities and discussion. Consequently, good attendance is rewarded by adding five points to the student's final score if he or she has no unexcused absences.
l. The student who has one-to-two unexcused absences receives no point penalties. The student who has more than two unexcused absences has a five-point deduction from his or her final score for each absence beyond two.
m. Three tardies are treated as one unexcused absence.
