II. ACADEMIC MISSION

Oral Roberts University's academic mission is to transform students by the power of the Holy Spirit into whole, competent servant-leaders through liberal arts and professional education that is fully Christian. Within a Spirit-filled healing community, administration, faculty, and staff love and serve students by helping them grow in knowledge, skills, wisdom, character, and spirit.

Student transformation is measured through the evaluation of student expression of University learning outcomes as demonstrated through accompanying proficiencies and capacities.

Professionally competent Discipline-specific proficiencies listed under Program Outcomes.

The last page of this syllabus, "COURSE INVENTORY for ORU's Course Objectives," indicates how this course supports ORU's academic mission and ORU's whole-person approach to learning outcomes through its ePortfolio system.

III. PROGRAM OUTCOMES

ORU seeks to educate the whole person, with balanced emphasis placed on the development of the spirit, mind, and body. The undergraduate curriculum encompasses significant areas of liberal arts and sciences knowledge—Biblical studies, fine arts, humanities, languages, literature, mathematics, natural sciences, and social sciences. The general education core provides the following Program Outcomes this course supports, marked below in bold text and with an asterisk (*).

1. A common bond of knowledge for all students;
2. Encourages the synthesis and integration of that knowledge into a unified whole;
3. Sharpens the skills of communication, computation, and critical analysis;
4. Develops appreciation for differing cultures;
5. Promotes a lifestyle of physical well-being; and
6. Establishes a Scriptural foundation for a vital faith.

IV. COURSE GOALS

This intermediate language course is designed to help students develop communicative competence and oral proficiency in French, with proficiency defined as the ability to communicate specific messages in particular situations for a given purpose. By acquiring another language, students gain practical tools for entering foreign cultures for Christian service or career purposes. Because language and culture are intertwined, students learning a foreign language also learn from and about foreign culture by studying how people view themselves and their society in terms of history, politics, religion, and economic and social structures.

V. COURSE OBJECTIVES

Each Course Objective notes the level of Bloom's Taxonomy \(BL\) at which it will be measured.

After successfully completing this course, I should be able to:

1. Converse in the target language using common vocabulary, phrases, and topics, such as discussing hobbies, school, professions, family structures, as well as describing homes, businesses, and neighborhoods. (BL3, PO3)
2. Respond in complete sentences in French in present tense, futur proche, and passé composé. (BL3, PO3)
3. Express oneself in written and spoken French at the Intermediate level. (BL3, PO3)
4. Use essential grammatical structures. (BL3, PO3)

VI. TEXTBOOK AND OTHER LEARNING RESOURCES

Textbook(s) and materials for the course are listed using standard citation style (APA, MLA, Chicago, Turabian, etc.). Since other styles may be used in disciplines other than the one used in this course or school, the ORU Citing and Documenting Sources pages offer a collection of styles students may choose from. This course asks that students be consistent in whatever style they use throughout the course.

VII. POLICIES AND PROCEDURES

A. University Policies and Procedures

1. Participation: Participation in each online class through discussion forums, assignments, and all other course activities is mandatory at Oral Roberts University. This counts as your attendance in the course. Excessive absences can reduce a student’s grade or deny credit for the course.
2. Plagiarism: The ORU Catalog explicitly addresses the issue of plagiarism. Make sure you know ORU’s policy on plagiarism and what is considered plagiarism: <https://goo.gl/iG7F4D>
3. Privacy: By law, students are entitled to privacy regarding their records. The Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act of 1974 (FERPA), as amended and available in the ORU Employee Handbook, sets forth requirements designed to protect the privacy of student education records. The law governs access to records maintained by educational institutions and the release of information from those records.
4. Whole Person Assessment Requirements:
 - a. Specify which, if any, Whole Person Assessment requirements there are for this course.
None for this course.

B. School and/or Department Policies and Procedures

1. Class Assignments

- a. Students need to have the appropriate textbooks, course materials, and other supplies as designated by the professor.
- b. Professors may refuse to accept an assignment if it has inappropriate content, does not meet the assignment’s criteria (e.g., not typed, incorrectly documented), is incomplete, is suspected of plagiarism, or is turned in too late.

2. Late Work

- a. The student is responsible for obtaining class assignments and materials, and all work is expected to be completed as scheduled. The professor may not accept late work, or it may result in a lower grade. Computer or Internet malfunctions do not constitute an excuse for late work; students should have their work prepared in time to ensure that they can get it completed, edited, and proofread prior to the instructor’s due date. These responsibilities assist the student in professional development.
- b. Generally, assignments missed from a serious sickness or family crises can be made up and the instructor should be notified as soon as possible to reach an agreement on due dates and possible penalties. Each instructor has his or her own late-work policy. Instructors use their own judgment in accepting late work.

3. Incompletes

As stated in the University catalog, incompletes are granted only for “good cause,” such as extended hospitalization, long-term illness, or a death in the family. Students must petition for an incomplete using the form available in the English and Modern Languages Department. Very few incompletes are granted.

C. Online Programs Policies and Procedures

1. Learning Community: Online learning community is established through active participation in the threaded weekly discussions. The mutual exchange of ideas, information, and experiences is an essential part of the learning process, and students are encouraged to use the discussion forum as virtual classroom platform.

D. Course Policies and Procedures

- 1. Evaluation Procedures: Students are evaluated via several formative and summative assessments each unit:
- a. The MyFrenchLab and textbook exercises: These activities are designed to provide grammar and vocabulary practice to help you learn the material and be prepared for the quizzes and chapter test. The number of exercises each unit varies, but the points remain constant for each unit. That means one unit may have you complete 7 exercises and the next unit may be 10, but the points are the same, even though the number of exercises may differ. Students earn points by correctly answering the questions in MyFrenchLab and textbook.
 - b. Discussion posts: Students are assigned activities so they can practice French by interacting with classmates. Each student can earn up to 10 points by participating and completing the assignment with correct grammar, etc.
 - c. Unit quiz: Each unit, students are assessed by a summative quiz.
 - d. Unit recording: Each unit, students are assessed by a recording of a paragraph or designated text. This recording evaluates students' speaking proficiency. The recording is graded for correct sentence structure and vocabulary and for correct pronunciation.
 - e. Grades and Extra Credit: The final grade is based on assignments, quizzes, chapter exams, and final exam. Students must earn a minimum grade of "C" in this course before taking the next level. The weight of each item is included in the Course Calendar. Extra credit items are not offered in this course
