VI. POLICIES AND PROCEDURES

- A. Department Policies and Procedures

1. Attendance—At Oral Roberts University, students are expected to attend all classes. Understanding that there are sometimes unavoidable circumstances that prevent perfect attendance, each student is allowed to miss class the number of times per week a class meets. This allowance is for illness, personal business, and personal emergency. Students may consider this personal days or sick leave. If a student has absences in excess of this number, the earned grade for the course will be reduced one letter grade for each hour's absence above those allowed. A student missing class due to illness must take an unexcused absence. Extended illnesses are handled on an individual basis and require a doctor's excuse.
2. Administratively Excused Absences—Students who must miss class for University sponsored activities must follow these procedures:
 - a. Inform the professor before the event.
 - b. Arrange to complete missed work within one week.
 - c. Not commit to class performances (oral reports, speeches, television tapings, group presentations, etc.) on a date the student will be gone. Makeup work is not permitted if the student voluntarily commits to a performance on the date of an administratively excused absence.
 - d. Present an excuse, signed by the Dean of Arts and Cultural Studies, the day the student returns.
3. Tardies—Tardies are an inconvenience to the other class members and the professor, and they prevent the late student from obtaining maximum value from the class. Therefore, tardies are calculated in the attendance provision for this course. Three tardies equal one absence and are included in the absences when determining the course grade. It is to the student's advantage to make sure that the professor is informed immediately following the close of the class that the student was tardy and not absent. It is not the professor's responsibility to stop the class to mark the student late; the student is the one responsible to convey that information following that class. Students should not expect to be credible the following class session concerning a late arrival on a previous day.
4. Late Work—The student is responsible for obtaining class assignments and material covered during an absence. All work must be completed as scheduled. An absence is not an excuse for turning in late work or for being unprepared with assignments for the class following the absence. If late work is accepted, a substantial penalty will be assessed.

B. Course Policies and Procedures

1. Evaluation Procedures:
 - a. Attendance
 - b. Accomplishment of Course Objectives: 75%
(Assignments 35% and Exams 40%)
 - c. Attitude and Effort: 25%
2. Whole Person Assessment Requirements: None
3. Other Policies and/or Procedures
 - a. Each student should be prepared and ready to dance five minutes before the scheduled class time. Arriving late not only is disrespectful to the instructor, but is harmful to the dancer because it hurries the body into vigorous exercise without a proper warm-up.
 - b. Dance Class Format: The ballet class format has two main sections: the barre and the center.

- c. Ballet Classroom Etiquette: When students arrive, they should quietly go to their places at the barre before the beginning of class. If students arrive after the class starts its exercises, the teacher will determine whether the student will join the class. As in any concert dance class, if students arrive late, they must ask the teacher's permission to join the class. During center work, students follow a set pattern for rotating lines. Students who are in the front half of the class separate, move to the sides, and take their places in the back half of the dance class. At the same time, students in the back half of the class walk forward quickly to take their places in the front of the class. For skills that travel across the floor, students watch their spacing as they move in groups of two, three, or four. Before starting a combination, each group allows adequate time after the previous group, but not so much time that it slows down the class. The teacher leads the students in a reverence at the end of class, then students applaud the teacher and the musician.
- d. Attire: Please refer to the Dance Department Handbook for complete information. This class is required to wear soft ballet shoes.
- e. Assignments:
 - 1. Students are to keep a folder in which they record personal technical insights, examples of imagery, corrections, vocabulary and the processing of such, as well as weekly assignments. Please use a 3-brad/pocket folder for journaling and retaining handouts and assignments. The folder should be available for the instructor's review at anytime.
 - 2. Attendance at one dance concert or view one videotaped performance (must turn in ticket stub stapled to program) and one 1 ½-2 page double-spaced, typed dance critique of a ballet performance or videotaped performance upon teacher approval.
- f. Ensemble Auditions: All dance majors are required to participate in all Dance Ensemble auditions and in any other departmental auditions for experience. (Please refer to the Dancer Handbook for further details)
- g. Evaluations:
 - 1. Movement evaluations: Students will be graded on their technical/artistic performance to provide feedback concerning whether the student has attained to the objectives of this course. The content of the evaluation classes will consist of material already given during the semester.
 - 2. Self/Peer-evaluations: Students will participate in self-evaluations and peer evaluations throughout the semester.
 - 3. Throughout the semester, students may be given written quizzes covering concepts and vocabulary discussed in class.
